

More Fun – More Action with

MEGAMANIA and STAMPEDE

For Atari owners – the best space-orientated cartridge ever...

In Megamania, Activision designer Steve Cartwright has created the ultimate in space games – Megamania is in fact a bizarre space nightmare! You control a fleet of mobile blasters, and are under constant attack by wave after wave of outrageous multi-coloured objects – shaped like hamburgers, tyres, dice, mops, lawnmowers and Swiss cheese for instance!

These bizarre tent objects propel across the screen, raining down deadly projectiles as they go – the colours and shapes assault your senses. And you are constantly assailed by the sounds of your battles. Fighting through each wave to see what's coming needs hard work, fun, and teamwork. Dodging alone won't save you – you have to fire away as hard as you can, bring it right if you, and you'll score!

Atari owners love it – now if you have an Intellivision, you can buy a version for your system, too!

If you haven't tried Stampede, by Bob Whithead, you should! It is a brilliant and unique concept (as we've all come to expect from Activision!) involving a colourful fast-action Wild West romp around the ranch – rounding up steers with lassos, for points. So get on down to your dealer as soon as you can, and ask to have a go!

UNIQUE ACTIVISION®

Master Gamer Performance Award Scheme

All owners of Activision home video games must now be entitled to join the UK Active Fun Club, organised by Computer Games Ltd. Membership is absolutely free, and great fun! The Club issues a quarterly magazine, organises local tournaments and (perhaps) one day runs a Master Gamer Performance Award Scheme for owners of most Activision cartridges.

New awards

For Potential owners: All-Active Fun Club Membership Emblem – a super colourful award badge. After an Activision game starts, must achieve a score of 20,000 points or more on any one of many cartridges, to become an official MegaMatic and obtain the special MegaMatic badge. Also owners must achieve a score of 45,000 points or more.

How to apply for MASTER GAMER STATUS

1. Gather a qualifying score, and take a photograph of your TV screen when you achieve it. Ring Kathy at the number below if you are not sure what score you have to beat!

2. Write your name, age and address on the back of the photograph and send it to us as quickly as you can. Here's who to write to:

Then try for Activision® UK Game Champion Status

After achieving Master Gamer status (see this page), on any Activision cartridge, your next step is to go for Game Champion! You take in competition with every other Activision Master Gamer in the country, and there's no limit to the number of scores you can submit.

GGL will award immediate Game Champions status, and a personalised certificate suitable for framing, for the highest score received to date on any Activision cartridge available in the UK. It's not too late to get a mail order Game Champion – or a Game Champion for just a few hours. New scores are coming in so Kathy will be busy.

Follow the same instructions for your Game Championship claim as for your Master Gamer claim – and they must always be written with a photograph please!

ACTIVISION UK Pentathlon

By popular demand, we've decided to hold the CGL Activision Pentathlon in co-operation with LOOK IN Magazine at a major hotel in Birmingham, on a Sunday in March 1989. Only our Activision Master Gamers may apply for an Entry Form - so if you've never had a badge or certificate from Glens or Kelly, fill out the Application below by 19 February of this year and we'll send you the Entry Form, which should be returned to us as soon as possible.

If you've qualified for one of the places in the Tournament we'll let you know by 7 March. All those taking part will have their travel expenses paid, and if you're coming in with a long way, you'll be given free hotel accommodation for the night before. (We'll ask parents to accompany children to make their own travel and accommodation arrangements.)

Great prizes!

The Pentathlon itself will consist of a series of exciting computer and console Activision games - but just before you play your last one, you'll have a surprise game with the great Day Squad!

The event will be a two week action of experts cups & trophies for two in California & USA, with a VIP Activision Activision & headquarters, to meet those famous day squad & future winners & friends. As the must be accompanied by a parent. And CGL, will send loads of interesting consolation prizes for the runners-up, products from CGL, a great game changer.
